

Vatican City, 18th June 2015

*Il Comandante
del Corpo della Gendarmeria dello Stato della Città del Vaticano*

Dear Mr. General Prosecutor,

on behalf of the High Authorities of the Holy See as well as on a personal level, I wish to express to You my sincere gratitude for Your excellent collaboration, about the Apostolic journey of His Holiness Pope Francis in the Sarajevo.

My heartfelt thanks for the faultless organization, which permitted to thousands people to have had the opportunity of participating with enthusiasm and spiritual fervour to that historic event. All events had occurred according to the already established protocol, and the personal greeting that the Holy Father offered to you is a clear sign of His Fatherly gratitude.

I wish to convey my special appreciation to all of Your close collaborators of General Procurator's Office.

It was certainly a strenuous and truly memorable occasion for all of us, most of all for the Holy Father who spent a memorable time enjoying the warm and festive reception accorded by the people of Sarajevo.

With these sentiments of friendship and gratitude, I assure you of my availability and of my highest consideration. With cordial wishes.

Domènec Meade
